

Some thoughts on parallelization and optimization

Arne Løkketangen

This presentation will be a collection of thoughts, reflections, ideas and questions about parallelization of optimization tasks. Focus will be on meta-heuristics, but will of course stray into many topics. The talk will thus be more on where I want to go, than on where I have been.