

NTS – Restart 2023

Nordisk brukerforening for trenings simulator

History of NTS

Why do we need NTS?

The development and use of the simulators has not stopped. On the contrary. More and more industries are using simulators to help their organizations reach their full potential.

We humans have developed over thousands of years and today are often the limitation in today's high-tech society. Being able to carry out purposeful and organized teaching is a very important part when it comes to using the simulator.

Evolution is a never-ending process

The intention of NTS?

NTS's main goal is to achieve safety, quality and cost-effectiveness by working to increase the skills of people, companies and institutions that are active in a simulator environment.

The purpose of the association is to:

1. Pass on knowledge and experience in:
 - a. practical use of simulators
 - b. methodology and pedagogy
 - c. the implementation of simulator projects
 - d. simulator maintenance
 - e. create contact between industry, research, institutions and public bodies.
2. Create a good social contact network between simulator users.
3. Monitor and inform about developments in pedagogy, technology, authorities and security requirements.
