

Come with us on our journey

Chartered Institute of Ergonomics
& Human Factors

An amazing milestone

In 2014, 65 years after our formation, we reached an amazing milestone in our organisation's history: we became a Chartered Institute.

We are now setting out on a journey that will, over the next five years, enable us to lay solid foundations for growth before we establish ourselves as a thriving community enjoying a step-change in visibility and recognition.

But we can't do it without you.

With your support, your level of professionalism and your enthusiasm for our discipline, we can move forwards. In return, we have a package of membership benefits for you that we hope will support you, help you to grow professionally - and save you money!

Take a look...

Become one of the world's first Chartered Ergonomists

Demonstrate to your peers, employers and clients that you have committed yourself to your career and its development.

- ✓ You can use the title 'Chartered Ergonomist & Human Factors Specialist' and logo.
- ✓ You can use the post-nominal C.ErgHF.
- ✓ You'll receive a special certificate.

Work towards upgrading to Registered Membership and you could be eligible for Chartered status.

Get immediate unlimited access to 7 journals

You don't need to make decisions every year about which journal to have, or whether you can afford any at all; with this package, they're all included!

You get unlimited online access to 7 leading journals including Ergonomics and Applied Ergonomics.

You also have access to an archive that goes right back to the very first issue of each journal. That's access to a total of over 1500 journal issues and more than 15,000 papers.

Simply log in to My IEHF, the members portal, and look for My journals.

Manage your CPD online

Carry out activities

You won't have to try to remember what you've done as CPD throughout the year, you'll be able to record and manage your CPD online as you go, helping you document what you've achieved and enabling you to plan ahead.

Reflect on what you've learned

Go to My IEHF, the members' portal, and look for My CPD.

Save money with special discounts

Save many times your membership subscription fee by taking advantage of special discounts and guaranteed best rates on lifestyle, travel, insurance, business products and services.

Our new discount scheme offers genuine deals and dedicated support.

Look for the My discounts link in My IEHF.

You're in great company

If networking and knowledge sharing are important to you, we provide you with latest news about events and meetings that allow you to do just that. Get together with other members informally and for free at local, organised talks, demonstrations and visits.

You can also meet other like-minded professionals from all sectors at our larger events, and benefit from significant savings on standard non-member rates. For example, you could save up to £100 when you book a place at our annual Ergonomics & Human Factors conference.

Go to www.ergonomics.org.uk and look for My IEHF.

community

Read all about it

Our membership magazine, The Ergonomist, will be available for you to read online as soon as the issue is ready.

Be the first to read about jobs, articles, news and views.

You can access back issues online too.

Look for the link in My IEHF.

Have a voice

Become part of a team by volunteering to join a working group, or a committee or nominate yourself for Council and help us all move forwards. You could learn about the workings of our organisation, influence our decision-making and gain lots of new contacts. You could represent the IEHF on external bodies or comment on government consultation documents and white papers. You could write pieces for publication in The Ergonomist. All good for CPD and your CV.

influence

And there's even more

There are several more ways in which you can benefit from being a member of the CIEHF. You can:

- ✓ Register your professional interests and profile with us so we can give you the right support and opportunities.
 - ✓ Get the lowest premiums on public liability insurance for practitioners.
 - ✓ Advertise in print and online with generous discounts.
 - ✓ Buy top rated, printed ergonomics journals and books at substantially reduced rates.

Best of all, you will be part of a thriving community with a distinct mission to develop and share our understanding of ergonomics and human factors, demonstrate its benefits for human wellbeing and organisational success, and bring about its adoption in everyday life.

Get your benefits now.
