

Adapting Community Risk and Vulnerability Analyses for Climate Change - AdaptCRVA

Conference 2008

January 22-23, Trondheim, Norway

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

Among other things with the following topics:

- Risk analyses work related to natural hazards and technological disasters
- Impact of climate change on hydrological modelling and flood risk assessment
- Risk perception and communication
- Mainstreaming and the transformative role of integrated assessment methodologies
- Climate change vulnerability assessment for policy-making

Preliminary layout of the Conference

First day - Tuesday, January 22

12:00 Registration and lunch
13:00 Opening session
14:00 Oral session I
14:45 Oral session II
15:30 Coffee break
16:00 Oral session III
16:45 Oral session IV
17:30 Closing of the day

19:30 Conference dinner

Second day - Wednesday, January 23

9:00 Oral session V
9:45 Oral session VI
10:30 Coffee break
11:00 Oral session VII
11:45 Oral session VIII

12:30 Closing of the conference and lunch

---

13:30 Development Group - Strategy Meeting
15:00 Coffee break
15:30 Development Group - Strategy Meeting
16:30 Closing of the day

---

Further information will be provided later, on:
Topics of the oral sessions
Registration
Accommodation

Travel and conference costs for the invited speakers and the members of the project will be covered by the project.
Guests are welcome. However they have to bear the costs by themselves.

The Adapting Community Risk and Vulnerability Analyses project is a part of the SAMRISK programme and financed by  The Research Council of Norway contact: phone: +47 73 59 23 11, mobile: +47 45 24 79 30

e-mail: kristina.heilemann@sintef.no

