

Design overview of the test wafer developed by the project. Twelve 15x15 mm squares contain a large number of basic design elements. Eight rectangles are dedicated to four-point bending tests to be performed after dicing of the wafer.